

Fédération de l'Union Européenne des Consuls Honoraires (F.U.E.C.H.)
Federation of European Unions of Honorary Consuls
Founded 2004 in Grenoble

Office of the President

H.E. Ambassador Umberto Vattani
President of FENCO and VIU
c/o Venice International University VIU
Isola di San Servolo
I – 30 100 Venice

Vienna, 9.12.2013

Esteemed President,
Dear Ambassador Vattani,

In responding to your kind letter of 3.12.2013 I thank you very much for your valuable initiative to bring back the Italian Honorary Consular Corps to the European family of Consular Corps Association, to F.U.E.C.H..

I contacted by phone some members of the F.U.E.C.H.-Board, who all welcomed your initiative and have asked me to proceed with the application of FENCO.

In order to be able to formerly decide on the membership of FENCO on the occasion of the next F.U.E.C.H.-Board meeting please provide me with the following:

- Statutes of FENCO
- Confirmation of registration of FENCO as an Association according Italian law
- Postal, tel/fax and email contact details of FENCO

Esteemed Ambassador Vattani, I am looking forward very much to meet with you in person very soon, I am planning to come to Venice either end of January or in February 2014 to talk with you about future cooperations of FENCO and F.U.E.C.H..

This morning I had been called by H.E. Ambassador Marrapodi, who referred to your call to him, he confirmed, that due to your experience and proved successful career you will lead FENCO to a success – I am looking forward very much to it, since this is in the interest of all European Honorary Consular Associations and their mutual relations.

In the meantime I remain with best greetings from Vienna and the assurance of my highest considerations,

Hon. Consul General Dr. Wolfgang Breithenthaler
President (F.U.E.C.H.)